Scarfs...

Equipment and Materials

1 Weave-It
1 oz. Yorkshire Worsted

Weave twenty-one squares. Assemble as shown in diagram. Turn points A, B, C, D, E & F to wrong side and catch down before pressing to make neck edge straight.

Equipment and Materials

1 Weave-It
1 Junior Weave-It
1 oz. Navy Blue Shetland
1 oz. White Shetland

Weave eighteen regular squares and twelve junior squares. Assemble as shown in diagram. Turn points A, B, C, D, E & F to wrong side and catch down before pressing to make neck edge straight.

A striking scarf can be made by combining two contrasting colors. Wind the first and second directions with one color. Wind the third way and weave with the second color. This takes one ounce of each color but there is sufficient material left to make a small bag to match. When making this type of square it is advisable to change when half the required number of squares is completed and reverse the use of colors. Winding the first two directions takes a bit less yarn than winding the third and weaving.

Assembling

Lay out the finished squares on a table or other flat surface in the size and proportions called for in the diagram of the article you are making. Place the squares so that the bumps on the edges of one are directly opposite the bumps on the square next to it.

Thread a large crewel needle with a piece of the same material as the squares. If this thread is three times the length of the seam to be sewed there will be no necessity for joining a new thread in the middle of a seam.

Starting with the squares farthest away from you and sewing toward yourself, take one stitch in the first bump of one square skipping the bump directly opposite, take one stitch in the second bump of the opposite square.

Bed Spread

EQUIPMENT AND MATERIALS

1 Weave-It
36 oz. Linen Floss

Weave 504 squares of linen floss. When sewing these together match loops and sew with a fine thread.
Linen Squares

The third stitch is taken in the third bump of the first square, the fourth stitch in the fourth bump of the opposite square, and so on for the length of the seam. (This means that you are crossing diagonally from one side of the seam to the other leaving every other bump on both sides.) Now go back over the seam taking your stitches in the bumps that were skipped before. This makes a very firm and decorative seam made up of long narrow crosses.

Light linen squares joined in this way with a darker or contrasting shade are very effective.

If you are sewing a long seam you should measure off enough thread to sew only one way at a time. Very large pieces can be joined in sections and then the sections joined later.

1 Weave-It No. 1000

Weave 230 squares (182 plain and 49 with Sunken Diamond, as shown in the Weave-It Weaves Booklet). Assemble as shown in diagram. Press with damp cloth. Stitch in inverted pleats on shoulder in fronts. Stitch fronts to back with a sloping seam as shown. Baste and stitch in darts in back so that the back between the seams is one square wide. This will be uneven, but will not show when the collar is sewed over it. The collar is folded double. Underarm the extra squares on either side of the half square, form pleats when folded under and tacked. The underarm half square is a regular square which is sewed up halfway on each side. Tack down loose half after sleeve is sewed in. Sew sleeve together and pin into armhole matching the square A to the half square and pin the middle joining of the four squares at the top of the sleeve to the shoulder seam. Pin sides sloping them down to armhole. Ease all fullness to the top. This will leave points extending beyond seam. Sew or stitch around armhole. If points are to be trimmed off, the seam must be stitched to insure against raveling. Stitch once again beyond seam before trimming. Points can be tacked back into sleeve. Crochet around cut edges or bind. Press well each piece before the final assembling.
